ECONOMY IN COAL
Fuchun Lignite Coal stands for economy in fuel value. All kinds of coal have a large percentage of ash which is practically waste. The dust in FUCHUN lignite burns into lamps as soon as it is blown into the boiler. Fuchun lignite coal burns cleanly and is therefore a desired economy.

RUHR OCCUPATION RESULT.

UNREST IN NEAR EAST.

TURCO-GREEK CONFLICT POSSIBLE.

LONDON, January 28.
The unsettling effect of the French occupation of the Ruhr upon the situation in the Near East is evidenced by the Observer's correspondent at Vienna. He says that Balkan politicians there opine that the French have set a bad example to the Little Entente whose Ministers are going to meet at Belgrade or Bucharest to decide on joint measures against Bulgaria and Hungary who have paid no reparations.

Budapest papers report that Rumania is concentrating new troops on the Magyar frontier. The same correspondent states that according to news from A gora if an ultimatum is handed to the Turks at Lausanne on Wednesday they will reject it then as Greece has already an army in Thrace. A conflict on European soil may be inevitable in this regard.

Reuter's correspondent at Athens reports that the Allies have handed the Greek Government a note warning Greece of the danger of the concentration of Greek troops in Thrace and proposing the formation of a neutral zone on each side of the Maritza.

BAVARIAN FASCISTI BUSY.

BERLIN, January 28.
After prohibiting Fascist demonstrations organized by Hitler the Bavarian Government finally allowed them to be held. It is reported from Munich that meetings held yesterday evening were poorly attended. The ceremony of dedicating the Fascist colours is being held in Munich to day and disturbances are feared.

A state of emergency has been proclaimed at Gera where a few hundred members of the reactionary Rostbach brigade, partly armed, were arrested on route to Munich.

CANTON COUP.

STARTLING EVENTS.

NGAI BONG PING TRAPPED.

KWANGSI FACTION PREDOMINANT.

After our Canton correspondent had closed his report on Friday, startling events took place in Canton having an important bearing on the political situation. During the weekend, conflicting reports reached the Colony to the effect that Ngai Bong-ping had been trapped by the Kwangsi militarists and even shot at he had been shot and had died from his injuries. However, a member of the Kwangtung Provincial Assembly by name of Lam, who came down last night states that up to the time of his departure, Ngai was still under arrest and had not been liberated.

SITUATION MORE COMPLEX.

The effect of these kaleidoscopic changes is to render the situation more complex but several things seem evident. Firstly, in spite of the Kwangsi-Yunnan militarists' persistent declarations that they are constitutional troops and have been specially enjoined by "President" Sun to occupy Canton, they do not seem to be pro-Sun and by their recent action contradict his statement that they are acting under his express orders. By pursuing a policy of either disarming or absorbing smaller units, the Kwangsi commanders reduced the factions in Canton to three, viz., their own troops, the Yunnans and the Cantonese in the order of numerical strength. That, as is evident from our correspondent's report, they did not hesitate at a rupture to remove the Cantonese troops or at least reduce them to a negligible factor, hints that they will not be satisfied until all competition is overcome. By entrapping Ngai, who, despite his previous sitting on the fence, policy has been expressly appointed by Sun to the command of all the Cantonese troops, they have revealed themselves as their true colours and at the same time shown very little defence for Sun.

SUN'S FACTION POWERLESS.

Whether the Kwangsi coup has affected Dr. Sun's decision or not, it is worthy of mention that Sun should, according to telegraphic advice, have sailed from Shanghai on Saturday, but has not done so. It seems safe to assume from the present outlook that he will keep away from Canton indefinitely. His following is now rendered almost powerless and it is reported that his most prominent leaders have already left Canton with more haste than dignity. The Kwangsi element has become predominant. Taking their previous policy as a criterion, they are merely pro-themselves. In other words, they will attempt to occupy Canton as long as possible, regardless of Peking just for what they can get. The time will come when history will repeat itself and they will be ousted through popular opinion turning against them as the result of unbearable levies to maintain the armies with which they will govern Kwangtung.

THE FATEFUL MEETING.

HOW NGAI WAS TRAPPED.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

CANTON, Jan. 28.

On Friday evening a meeting was held at the headquarters of the River Defences the leaders of all factions being present either in person or by proxy ostensibly to discuss a solution of the situation. Among those personally present were Li Yik-piu, commander of one of the Kwangsi corps, Lau Tsin-wan, commander of the Kwangsi troops which previously occupied Whichow as General Chen's protégé who entered Canton with the allies and has since shown himself to be pro-Sun, Yeung Wai-ming, commander-in-chief of the Yunnan division, Lau Tsi-bing and Wong Hung yan, two Kwangsi brigade commanders, Ngai Bong-ping, the Civil Governor, Ngai Bong-ping, Chow Loo, the ex M.P. Admiral Yen Shu-tak and Chan Chak. Ngai, Chow and Chan were the members of the Kuomintang at the meeting.

NGAI ACCUSED AND ARRESTED.

Shortly after the meeting opened, Li Yik-piu accused Ngai of playing a double game, and being a traitor to Sun's cause. He accused him of remaining idle with his Third Kwangtung Army when Sun was expelled from the coup of June last and his failure to support Sun by a land attack when Sun bombarded Canton. Ngai was immediately placed under arrest and pandemonium broke loose. To the discredit of the officials, everybody made for the staircase. Mr. Han was said to have rolled down the stairs to be taken in hand by Lau Tsin-wan who went off with him in a motor-car. An assailant had his chance of bodyguards, every body started firing. A few of the aides being instantly shot in the excitement, the Kwangsi

STRIKE GRADUALLY SPREADING.

PARIS, January 28.
Messages from Dusseldorf state that sentences ranging from a week's to a fortnight's imprisonment and heavy fines have been imposed on the recently arrested demonstrators.

The strike is stated to be almost complete in the northern industrial area but French railwaymen are maintaining the services. The strike is only partial in the southern area. Sabotage on the railways, telephones and telegraphs is reported but French breakdown gangs are repairing the damage and restoring the services.

WISH FATHER TO THOUGHT?

LONDON, January 28.
The German wireless allegation that the Attorney General in the House of Commons declared the French occupation of the Ruhr to be illegal is untrue. The Attorney General did not make any such declaration and the House of Commons is not sitting.

HOMELESS ARMENIANS.

RUSSIAN OFFER ACCEPTED.

LAUSANNE, January 28.
The only bright side of the Lausanne picture at present is the Russian offer to find a home in Russia for a considerable number of Armenians. It is proposed to settle Armenians in North Georgia. The Russians will only provide land and the Armenians must depend on international aid to build their own buildings. The Armenians are pleased with the offer and will now negotiate with the Russians in regard to settlement of the details.

JAPANESE CONSUL INTERVENES.

This idea of inviting rivals to a meeting and subjugating them is not new. Lung Chai-kwang pursued the same course at Dutch Folly a few years ago and Ngai Bong-ping, not then having attained prominence has escaped.

Ngai was taken back to the Agricultural Hall, the headquarters of Shum Hang-ying, Commander-in-Chief of the Kwangsi forces. One report states that he was wounded in several places and died at Shum's headquarters but this has been contradicted. It appears that the Japanese Consul intervened and Ngai was not shot. Ngai studied at a Japanese military college for some time and he is stated to be a Japanese subject. However, the report goes that Shum demanded the surrender of the arms of Ngai's troops as a stipulation to his release. The efforts of the Consul seemed to have been of some avail as Ngai was reported alive on Saturday. Nearly two thousand of his troops gave up their arms, this being done, it is said, at the request of Ngai who wrote to the second in command whilst still a prisoner. Up to the time of writing, it is claimed that he has been liberated but this has not been confirmed, but the reports that he is dead seem to be premature.

By their coup, the Kwangsi have established themselves in full control. To-day, the remnants of the Cantonese troops have left for Yeung Kwan near Kongmoon, accompanied by two gunboats, the "Kong Tai" and "Kong Kwoo." Lau Tsin-wan also left with his two thousand odd troops for the East River district, the embarkation at Tai-shan being effected early in the morning.

CANTON IN STATE OF SIEGE.

Canton is in a state of siege. Since the meeting broke up, work at all the yamens has ceased. On both sides of the river machine guns and field-guns are posted trained at one another. The warships in the Pak Ngo Tam are all cleared for action. Special guards patrol the Western Bund and the entrances to Sham-n. This it is believed, is for the purpose of preventing Sun's adherents from escaping. A number of shops and restaurants are flying foreign flags, the Union Jack being predominant.

In spite of the Kwangsi vigilance, nearly all of Sun's supporters have escaped. Wu Han-min, Sun Fo and Yeung Si-ngam all having gone to Hongkong.

MALAY AND LANDLADY.SENT TO PRISON FOR ASSAULT.Mr. Forbes Lankester, the West
London magistrate, sentenced Mahomed Zain Ariffin, a Malayan student, to two months' imprisonment for assaulting Mrs. Emma Threadgold, of Redcliffe-road, South Kensington.It was stated that the assault took place when Mrs. Threadgold presented her account, the woman receiving a heavy blow on the head, a poker wrapped in a handkerchief being found on the table.The defence was that Mrs.
Threadgold was under the influence of drink, and knocked her head against the sofa.In the witness-box Ariffin denied the charge.Mr. H. D. Rooms appealed for a fine for his client, who, he said, had been educated at a public school, and had gone through a University, but the magistrate declined to alter his decision.

Notice of appeal was given.

SAIYINGPUN SCHOOL.

DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES.

The annual prize distribution of Saiyungpun School took place in the school building at West Point this afternoon, in the presence of a large gathering of parents and friends of the students. Mrs. Irving, wife of the Hon. Mr. E. A. Irving, (Director of Education) graciously gave away the prizes to the successful students.

HEADMASTER'S REPORT.

The Headmaster's report stated:— "The maximum enrolment during 1922 was 339 (338 in 1921). The average attendance 333 (319 in 1921). Fees amounted to $11,061. The school has remained full throughout the year, and a large number of prospective pupils were unable to secure admission. We look forward expectantly to the completion of our new school, which will accommodate greater numbers. The attendance has been good, and for a few months the percentage was as high as 90. Several classes maintained an unbroken record for a period of five consecutive weeks, while 12 boys, one fifth of the whole school—made perfect attendance. The general standard of efficiency has been maintained: map drawing, handwriting, English conversation and composition are particularly good. All the pupils in Class 4 successfully passed the qualifying entrance examination to Queen's College. The discipline and tone continue excellent. Substantial additions have been made to the apparatus and equipment. The University education undergraduates use the school for teaching purposes. Although handicapped for ground we have done well in sports. Volley ball and football are the principal games; during the summer launch parties and swimming were much enjoyed.

BOY SCOUT TROOP.

Our Scouts attended at Government House during the visit of H. R. H. The Prince of Wales, when Patrol Leader Lo Kwok Chung was decorated by H. R. H. with the gilt cross for gallantry in saving a boy from drowning at the Kennedy Town bathing beach. During August the Troop spent nine days in camp at Castle Peak; the expenses were generously defrayed by Sir R. B. Ho Tung, The Hon. Mr. Chow Shou-sun, Messrs. Lo Cheung-shui, Choy Wai-man, Leung Ki bo, and Dr. Wan Man kai. It is hoped that the Troop will increase in numbers, and that the Scouts will do all they can to repay in some measure, by loyal service to the school and the Empire, the care and attention lavished on them.

FOR CHARITY.

Our energies have not been confined to studies and sport alone. In the cause of Charity the School has done splendidly. From class collections and self-denial the scholars contributed $300 to the Swatow Relief Fund. Our Scouts assisted the "Charitable Associations" in street collections and were instrumental in raising $11,000 for the same purpose. Again, when we were unfortunate to lose our "head boy" the School came forward, defrayed the whole of the funeral expenses and handed a very substantial sum to the bereaved and aged mother.

UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.

The names of thirteen old scholars figure in the recent University Examination lists: Matriculation—three. Senior Local—one. Junior Local—nine. One, Lo Tung Fan, who won the Alan Morris Memorial scholarship to Queen's College where he obtained further honours, has distinguished himself by gaining the President of China Scholarship. We trust that his University career will be equally brilliant. To another "Old Boy" Mr. Leung Ki Ho we owe a debt of gratitude. During the year Mr. Leung presented the School with a mimeograph which we find very useful. This however, is but one of Mr. Leung's benefactions to his old School. In future years we hope that a larger number of "Old Boys" will come forward and assist the School.

SPECIAL PRIZE DONORS.

Our thanks are due also to the following gentlemen, donors of Special Prizes:—Mr. Leung Ki Ho, Mr. Tsang In Ting, Hon. Mr. Chow Shou Son, Mr. Mok Kon Sang, Captain Hall, Mr. Kwok Siu Lan, Sir Robert Ho Tung, Mr. Ip Sau Chi, Mr. Wong Kam Fook, Mr. Pang Sau Chun, Mr. Ng Sau Fan, Mr. Choo Po Siang, Mr. Chow Tung Sang, Mr. Chan Young Hon, Mr. P. There will be no game on Tuesday as Mr. A. Tse will meet Mr. A. J. O'Connell on February 1, at 6 p.m.

MEAT SHOP BLAZE.

$4,000 DAMAGE DONE.

On Saturday evening, a fire occurred at 35 Queen's Road West. The building is of three storeys, the ground floor being used as a dried meat shop, the first floor by the fish of the shop and the top floor as a tenement. On the roof, which is used for drying meat, is a cockloft. The fire originated in the roof and was extinguished after half an hour.

How the blaze started is unknown but damage to the extent of $4,000 is reported, the whole building having been affected by water from the hoses at the fire itself. Insurance had been taken out in the sum of $5,000.

ALL'GED BOMB OUTRAGE.

CYLINDERS ON TRAM LINE.

At about a quarter past four yesterday, passengers in train-car No. 27, which was just passing Lyeamun Terrace on the way to Shaukiwan, heard a loud explosion as though a bomb had gone off.

The motorman pulled up the car to investigate and discovered two cylinders a few feet apart on one rail and another cylinder on the other rail. Enquiries this morning elicited the fact that the cylinders had black metal cases with some kind of explosive inside. The shape resembled the detonator of a Mill's Bomb. Until the Analysts has furnished a report it is difficult to gauge the origin of the so-called bombs, but if they are bombs, they are of a very inferior type and crudely made.

No damage was caused to the tram which was in commission immediately after the accident.

A Chinese male, aged 29 years, was removed from the Tung Wah Hospital to the Government Civil Hospital as the result of attempting to commit suicide by jumping into the harbour yesterday afternoon.

YOU WANT PINK CHEEKS.

The Way to Get Them.

Every woman wants pink cheeks, they mean not only beauty but health. Then put the colour in your cheeks, not on them. The glow of health is the red healthy blood showing through translucent skin. It is impossible without rich, red blood.

When a girl's colour fades and she looks debilitated, is short of breath when her heart palpitates after every slight exertion and she has pains in various parts of the body, she needs Dr. Williams' pink pills. They are the best suited to restore the blood, bring brightness to the eyes and put colour in the cheeks and lips.

Your own chemist sells Dr. Williams' pink pills or post free, $2.00 per bottle, $8.00 for six, from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kennerly Road, 88 North, A. He'll send you a free in response to a postcard request directed to the above address.

SUN YAT SEN AND THE SOVIET.

SHANGHAI, January 27th.

A statement issued by Sun Yat Sen and Mr. Joffe (Soviet Envoy to China) says that, following cordial conversations at Shanghai, both agreed that Communism or even a Soviet System, cannot at present be introduced into China, because the conditions are unfavourable for its success.

Mr. Joffe declared that the Soviet is ready to negotiate with China on the basis of renunciation by Russia of all treaties and concessions which have been imposed on China, including the Chinese Eastern Railway.

Pending a competent Russo-Chinese conference, the existing railway management should be temporarily reorganised by an agreement between the Russian and Chinese Governments. Mr. Joffe emphasised that the Soviet did not intend to pursue an imperialist policy in Outer Mongolia, or cause it to secede from China.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen agreed that the evacuation of Russian troops from Mongolia is, at present, not in the interests of China, owing to the Peking Government's inability to prevent a recrudescence of White hostilities against Russia from Chinese territory, leading to a grave situation that the present one.

Mr. Joffe leaves for Japan and Dr. Sun Yat Sen for Canton to-day.

OPIUM IN CHINA.

LONDON, January 27th.

Sir John Jordan is of the opinion that the suggestion made by Sir Francis Aglen to legalise the opium traffic is retrograde, and he was glad to see that the Chinese who were present at the meeting deprecated it. He said that the demoralisation of the outdoor staff of the Customs was a small matter compared with the demoralisation of China—The Government at Peking was naturally anxious to exploit any source of revenue which would help it to prolong its precarious existence, but he trusted there was still enough public opinion left in China to resist a relapse, which would stigmatise the Chinese for all time as an opium-ridden race. If China is not dead to all sense of self-respect, the mercantile classes and those representing the interests of their country would rise up and let the Peking Government know that it did not represent the best opinion of the country. He emphasised that world opinion, especially that of Great Britain and the United States could exercise a powerful effort in this matter, and hoped there would be an unmistakable expression of such opinion, in order to fortify the large class in China wishing to make good the reform of 1907-17.

Referring to Sir John Jordan's views regarding opium legalisation, Sir Francis Aglen states that, as after fifty years of opium prohibition and repression, backed up by the full weight of imperial authority, China in 1907 was obliged to take the retrograde step of legalising the traffic, so he believes that she will again be forced by the rapidly increasing demoralisation growing out of the vast illicit trade, to retrace her steps. Sir Francis Aglen in no wise advocates legalisation for the purpose of revenue, but as the only practical means of controlling, and finally suppressing the trade.

U. S. AMBASSADOR AT TOKYO.

TOKYO, January 28th.

Mr. Warren, the United States Ambassador, has left for America on the s.s. "President Pierce." He intends resigning after he reaches Washington. Mr. Hugh Wilson has been appointed Charge d'Affaires.

JAPANESE LEGATION AT THE VATICAN.

TOKYO, January 28th.

The Budget provision for a Japanese representative to the Vatican is shelling out opposition from Buddhists throughout the country.

The Foreign Office has issued a statement declaring that the proposed Legation is entirely diplomatic and in no way has it any religious aspect.

The statement also declares that Japan's advancing world position necessitates keeping in touch with such an important centre, and it recalls the historical Papal and Japanese diplomatic exchanges.

RUSSIAN REFUGEE SHIPS.

MANILA, January 28th.

Seven of the Russian refugee ships are now at Mariveles quarantine station. The passengers on the last two arrivals say that two of the largest vessels in the fleet, contrary to Admiral Stark's orders, headed for the north after signalling that they needed coal.

The whereabouts of these two vessels are unknown. The other three vessels of the fleet have also been lost track of.

One of the boats that turned back was formerly the flagship of Admiral Stark, who transferred to a smaller craft as an example of bravery in the other refugees who divided sailing on little boats on the voyage.

According to Colonel Mixer, head of the Red Cross in the Philippines Islands, most of the money donated at Shanghai, upon which Admiral Stark counted to pay the way of the refugees for two months, was on board one of the boats that put back.

Ten women are entering hospital at Manila, as they are about to become mothers.

Manila, January 30th.

One of the Russian refugee ships has been wrecked off Formosa, but there is no confirmation.

Governor-General Wood, after visiting Mariveles, said that he would ask the Washington Government to allocate a portion of the Russian Relief Funds voted by Congress to the refugees.

Governor-General Wood has asked all the Chambers of Commerce to take up the question of relief.

Meanwhile, the Russians will be receiving aid from the Red Cross.

SATURDAY'S CRICKET.

BATSMEN'S SUCCESS.

Enjoying first knock, and playing on their own ground, the Club overcame a weakened R.G.A. team on Saturday and improved their position in the League Table. Owen Hughes, going in after the fall of the first wicket, made the first century in the senior league, his 128 including 25 fours. In all, the Club compiled 231 runs off 30 overs and declared for 3 wickets. After a steady opening the Gimmens could only muster 110, one man being absent. Piercy caused the havoc, getting 7 wickets for 30. Playing on their own ground, C.R.C. found runs difficult to get, being all out for 70. Pay-Lieut. Wallace getting 6 wickets for 25 runs. After some steady play, the Navy passed this total and went on to score 175 several of the later batsmen and "Mr. Extras" getting double figures. Capt. Wood hit the only six of the match. The C.R.C. bowlers showed more consistent form than hitherto.

Civil Service 2nd XI. are almost booked for the wooden spoon in the second league. In their first match with Kowloon Juniors they played them to a tie. On Saturday on their own ground they lost by 4 wickets and 81 runs. After a promising opening their batsmen again failed, the innings being furnished for 87. Weaver getting 5 wickets for 16 and Raiton 5 for 31. The bowling being ineffective, Kowloon knocked up 168 for 6 wickets. Wheeler being top scorer with 58 and Edwards was again consistent, making 31 not out.

In contrast to their second team's display Civil Service visited Kowloon and gained a convincing victory in a "friendly". Benson was the only Kowloon batsman who could play the visitors' effective bowling, being getting the best figures with 5 for 23. Although Evans bowled really well for Kowloon, he had little support and Civil Service knocked up 161. Wood giving a convincing display, hitting one six and eight runs in his 58.

In another "friendly" Laurence made a century for Craigengower against the Club second string. The leather-hunting took a lot out of the visitors—Craigengower made 220—who could only reply with 123. Lt. D'Arcy Evans taking the most wickets, 4 for 17.

A close game resulted in the Police v. Queen's College friendly game, the latter getting home by 14 runs. Watts 31, and Reynolds 33 were the principal contributors to the home team's score of 132.

The school team consisted mostly of I.R.C. players. J. S. Currien made 53 and A. H. Madar 45, out of 146—Minnu with 3 wickets for 24 and Kelly with 3 for 14 were the most successful bowlers in the two teams.

Appended are the detailed scores, home teams names mentioned first.

The Indians' 2nd XI. visited Pokfulam and beat the University 2nd XI. by 3 wickets and 10 runs.

The University chose to bat first and piled up 96 runs. C. W. Lam being their top-scorer with 43 runs which included 7 fours.

The Indians taking second knock started badly—their two opening wickets fell for ducks in the first over but the other batsmen made good. E. Moosdeen carried his bat for 35 runs.

Both sides fielded well. This win placed the Indians more securely in the premier position in the League table, as they have five wins and one draw.

LAI HOO ENGLISH SCHOOL.
ANNUAL PRIZE GIVING.

The annual prize giving of the Lai Hoo English School took place yesterday at the World Theatre, when the prizes were distributed by Mr. R. H. B. Forrest, Inspector of Schools. An address of welcome was read in Chinese and several speeches were made. The King's Regiment Band discoursed music during the proceedings.

In the report of the Headmaster (Mr. Petrus Lei) it was mentioned that the school was organized by two worthy gentlemen for the purpose of teaching English, French and Chinese, and also the art of music. The present staff consisted of twelve masters, 8 for English, 1 for Chinese, 1 for typewriting and shorthand, 2 for instrumental music. Results from the bi-annual examinations had been satisfactory.

Mr. Forrest congratulated the school on the rapid strides it had made from a modest beginning. He hoped the boys would not make the mistake which he saw commonly made in Hongkong and even in his own country. Most of them had to learn first those things which would enable them to make a living. But this was not the end of the matter. They must always remember that pen, ink and books should not be made merely the instrument of a trade and that when they left school their education was by no means finished.

HONGKONG MIRROR.

"STEPS" WEEKLY JOURNAL OF SKETCHES.

The Homeland has had its "Mirrors of Downing Street" and America has had its "Mirrors of Washington." Therefore, it is only fitting that Hongkong, which every day reflects the changes that it logs behind the times, should also have its mirror. This has now been forthcoming in the shape of a weekly journal of sketches published by Mr. S. Stepanoff, well-known in the Colony as the clever cartoonist "Step," and printed by the Newspaper Enterprise, Ltd., Wyndham Street. The artist in a few words about his publication.

"The Crooked Mirror" describes it as a "modest attempt." Modest it is, certainly, but even to it is very entertaining and holds big promise for future success. The front page he devotes to "The Portrait Gallery," giving here every week a sketch of some well-known local resident. The first patient—one might have said subject, but the paradox is irresistible—the first patient is "The Doctor." The title is a little misleading but the first glance establishes his identity and explains the nature of the distinction. The artist's choice for next week will be awaited with interest.

The other sketches in the first number all drawn in Step's best style, explain themselves and will doubtless cause considerable amusement among victims and their friends alike. Another feature of the new publication is a fiddle, the person who guesses the correct answer receiving free a sketch of him or herself in colour.

R.A.M.C. REUNION.

ANNUAL DINNER HELD.

Past and present members of the Royal Army Medical Corps, resident in Hongkong, held their second annual reunion dinner at the Hongkong Hotel on Saturday evening. A party of nearly forty sat down to an excellent menu.

Cpl. Humphreys presided, and amongst those present were: Dr. W. W. Pearce (Medical Officer of Health), Major Littlejohn, Dr. Allan, Capt. Tomory, Dr. Thomas, Capt. Pettes, Dr. Black, Capt. Tomlinson, Dr. Kaler, Dr. Valentine, also Rev. J. T. Holman, Capt. and Quarter Master Conyway

WHEN PARADISE WAS NOT PARADISE.

MAN'S UNREQUITTED LOVE.

At the Old Bailey Vividit Joseph Kenneth Parsons, 22, of Leyton, E., was sentenced to seven years' penal servitude for attempting to murder Edith Mabel Noble, 18, a typist, of Leytonstone, E., by cutting her throat with a razor at Broad-street Station on October 30.

Miss Noble, a slight, good-looking girl, whose neck was bandaged, said that she and Parsons had been sweethearts.

Detective-Inspector Crocker said that there was found on Parsons a letter to his mother, which contained the following passages:—
"By the time you get this, mother, I shall be gone away from all these cares and troubles. They have taken my sweet heart. For twelve nights I have not slept. I only lay awake through the long watches thinking, striving to find peace and quiet for my poor demented brain. I nearly had her in my arms once in all this long week, and even then she told me what might happen if he caught her. Money was his creed."

"I am taking her with me. I feel it is for the best. She is so unhappy, and besides Paradise would not be Paradise if she was not there."

Dr. East, Medical Officer of Prison, said that he found Parsons mentally unstable, impulsive, but not insane.

Parsons gave evidence. He said that for three months after he met Miss Noble they were very happy. Then there were domestic troubles at her house and he was asked to leave. His mind was a blank at the time he cut the girl's throat. He knew something bad happened when he was at the police station, but he did not know what.

Sir E. Wild, in passing sentence, said he would make a special representation for Parsons' mind to be inquired into. Parsons was suffering from self-pity. He thought too much of himself and nothing of the girl.

GOLDEN MUMMIES.

LORD CARNARVON'S CALL TO EXPLORERS.

The long search for the royal treasure tombs of ancient Egypt was described by Professor Newberry at a meeting of the Egypt Exploration Society at Burlington House, Piccadilly.

Lord Carnarvon, the discoverer with Mr. Howard Carter of the tomb of King Tut-an-kh Amen, wrote:

"The interest of our discovery consists in the fact that the art of Amarna is continued in the tomb of Tut-an-kh Amen. It is so wonderful that one can only regret that our lack of funds has prevented the continuation of the Amarna excavations. After all we have only been digging two years here, and Carter and myself had until this season worked for eight seasons without finding anything of much importance. I feel, therefore, a great effort should be made to resume our operations, as I am convinced that Amarna is a site second to none."

Professor Newberry said the recent discovery at Thebes surprised anything that archaeologists had hoped for in all Egypt. It had made them all realise what vast wealth this historic necropolis must once have contained. Certainly no cemetery in the world had ever had so much treasure buried in it as this desolate ravine lying to the west of Thebes.

He had worked with Mr. Howard Carter in this valley and knew the many disappointments Mr. Carter had sustained—how many blanks he had drawn—but it was dogged English perseverance which had at last prevailed, and he and Lord Carnarvon had been splendidly rewarded.

Professor Newberry read accounts from papyri of ancient tomb robbers. By cutting a hole in the rock thieves got into the pyramid of Schemensu.

In their confession they say the mummy of the King was overlaid with gold throughout, and there were numerous amulets and ornaments of gold at its throat; its head had a mask of gold upon it. They stripped off the gold and amulets, set fire to the linen bandages, and stole vases of gold, silver, and bronze. The plunder was divided into eight parts, one for each thief.

and Capt. and Quarter Master Bright.
Major Harding proposed the health of the past members of the R.A.M.C., and Dr. Pearce suitably responded. Afterwards the gathering spent the rest of the evening with an enjoyable musical programme which was contributed to by Dr. Pearce, Major Harding, Messrs. Oliver, Halliwell, West, Finlayson and others.
The untiring secretary, Mr. Reesdall, and his hard-working committee deserve much credit for the success of the happy reunion.

FOOTBALL.

INTERPORT TRIAL.

BLUES v. WHITES.

The second interport trial took place on Saturday the teams lining up as follows:—

Blues.—Hill: Gerrard, Chan So: Hudson, Stewart, Barlow: Chu Kwong young, Forsyth, Begg, Dr. Valentine and Chan Kwong yiu.

Whites.—Swan: Wynne, Grant: McLaren, Forbes, Leung Yok-long: Omar, Ip Kau, Burnett, Valentine and England.

Referee: Mr. Smith, Linesman Messrs. Fairburn and Spenser.

From the start it was obvious the Blues were the stronger team although the Whites had quite a fair share of the game. Early on the Whites pressed and Hill saved from Ip Kau. At the other end Valentine beat Swan with a fast screw shot. Combination amongst the Blues forwards was very good, the players keeping the ball moving to one another. Whites missed a good chance, England letting the ball go too far before centring. Forsyth put on No 2 for the Blues after Begg had brought Swan to his knees with a hard drive. Ip Kau, from a very good individual movement, beat Hill and decreased the Blues' lead. Hudson was hurt just before half time and had to leave the field.

Half time score Blues 2. Whites 1. Resuming Bradshaw came out in place of Hudson and the Whites had all the play for the first ten minutes but failed to score. Stewart started a good movement at the other end but Forsyth sent over the top. From a good movement by Valentine and Omar, Ip Kau received and bearing Gerard went in and made the Blues' lead. From now onward play was of a very fast nature, both sides having good chances to score but over excitement spoilt many a good chance and the game ended in a draw of two goals all.

The Blues' forward lines showed good understanding and the passing was on a casual very pretty. The two extreme wing men have a good turn of speed and know how to centre the ball. Forsyth played his usual clever game. Begg was good but on occasions showed himself inclined to forget the good points of football. The halves worked well and placed nicely, and no discrimination can be made between them. Chan So and Gerrard understand one another well although the former did not seem up to his usual form. Hill in goal did not have much to do.

For the Whites, Valentine and Ip Kau were the outstanding players with, of course, the exception of Swan in goal who is always expected to shine. McLaren and Forbes in the half back line played well but were on the slow side. Wynne at back was good but was also on the slow side.

CREMATORIUM (CRIME).

MR. WOOD AND THE WOOD.

Before Mr. J. R. Wood at the Police Court this morning, the caretaker of the Japanese Crematorium, at Sooi-kum-poo, was charged with being in unlawful possession of 298 bottles of wood.

A forest guard gave evidence to the effect that he visited the Crematorium in company with a European sergeant and saw the wood.

The caretaker offered to give evidence in the witness-box and the following conversation occurred:—
Magistrate:—In whose possession was the wood?

Defendant:—I do not know.

Magistrate:—Who used the wood?

Defendant:—I do not know.

His Worship then told the defendant that unless he could say where the wood came from, he would be fined $10. As the caretaker still did not manage to satisfy his Worship he was fined the amount stated.

SHIELD COMPETITION.

TITANIA v. DURBAN.

Played on Navy "B" and a very even game ended in a draw of one goal each. In the first half play was of a very even nature the Durban having the advantage of a strong wind, but failed to score. Early in the second half one of the Titania defenders handled in the penalty area and Darlington beat Phillips from the spot kick. Toward the finish Gries made the scores level and the final whistle went with the result as stated above.

The replay will take place on Wednesday next on Navy "A" ground kick-off at 4.15 p.m. and if necessary extra time will have to be played. The winners of this game will meet the Hawks in the next round.

LEAGUE SECOND DIVISION.

S. CHINA "B" v. ST. JOSEPH'S.

Played on the College ground the home team going down by 2 goals to none, this taking away their unbeaten record. Ip Kau and Kwok Po Kwan were the goal scorers.

Titania had field a day against the Police scoring no less than nine times, their opponents failing to reply.

KOWLOON v. DURBAN.

Kowloon played a drawn game with the Sailors on Navy "A" ground both teams scoring once.

The Warders beat the United by one goal to none.

ST.-PETER'S CHURCH.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The Rev. V.H. Copley Moyle, Chaplain of St. John's Cathedral, presided over the annual meeting of St. Peter's Church which was held in the library yesterday morning. A large gathering of the Church congregation was present.

The meeting having passed the minutes of the last meeting and the statement of accounts, the following regulations based on those in force at St. John's Cathedral, relative to the election of a Church Council, were put to the meeting by the Chairman and adopted:—

1. The Church Council to consist of not more than six lay members to be elected at a general meeting of subscribers to the Church fund to be held annually in the month of January.

2. Baptised members of the congregation who subscribe not less than $10 annually shall be entitled to vote.

3. Members of the Council must be British subjects, communicants not under 21 years of age.

Dr. Earle, the Hon. Secretary, explained that the object of introducing the new regulations was to bring St. Peter's Church in closer relationship and co-ordination with the Cathedral.

The following gentlemen were re-elected to serve on the Church Council: Dr. H. G. Earle, Messrs. H. A. Allen, S. R. Jones, G. S. Zimmern and A. W. Miller. Miss Mow Fung was elected to fill the place of Mrs. Dawson.

The election of Mr. Zimmern was not confirmed, as there is a doubt as to his qualification in regard to age.

Dr. Earle and Miss Mow Fung were elected as the Church representatives at the forthcoming Diocesan Conference to be held on March 13th.

The need of a church warden or sidesman to show people who attended the Church to their seats was mentioned by Mr. G. Fieldgate, the Church organist. He said that on many occasions he had seen people enter the church, and finding no hymn books, go out again. He had sometimes minister to the congregation for several people in the congregation.

Mr. Fieldgate also pointed out the bad supply of choir requisites and the consequent difficulty of forming a choir. There were no tune books and salutes. Formerly the Church depended on the Diocesan Boys' School for the choir and now that the school had almost withdrawn from the Church there was a difficulty in keeping the choir up to strength.

It was decided to leave the appointment of sidesmen and the supply of tune books and salutes to the Church Council.

A séance was given recently in Chicago by Elizabeth Allen Tomson and her husband Dr. Clarence Tomson, late of London. A chance was given to news photographer to snap any spook that materialized—and here is the result. It speaks for itself.

The College of St. Boniface, at Winnipeg, was recently destroyed by fire. This was the second Roman Catholic institution in Canada burned in ten days.

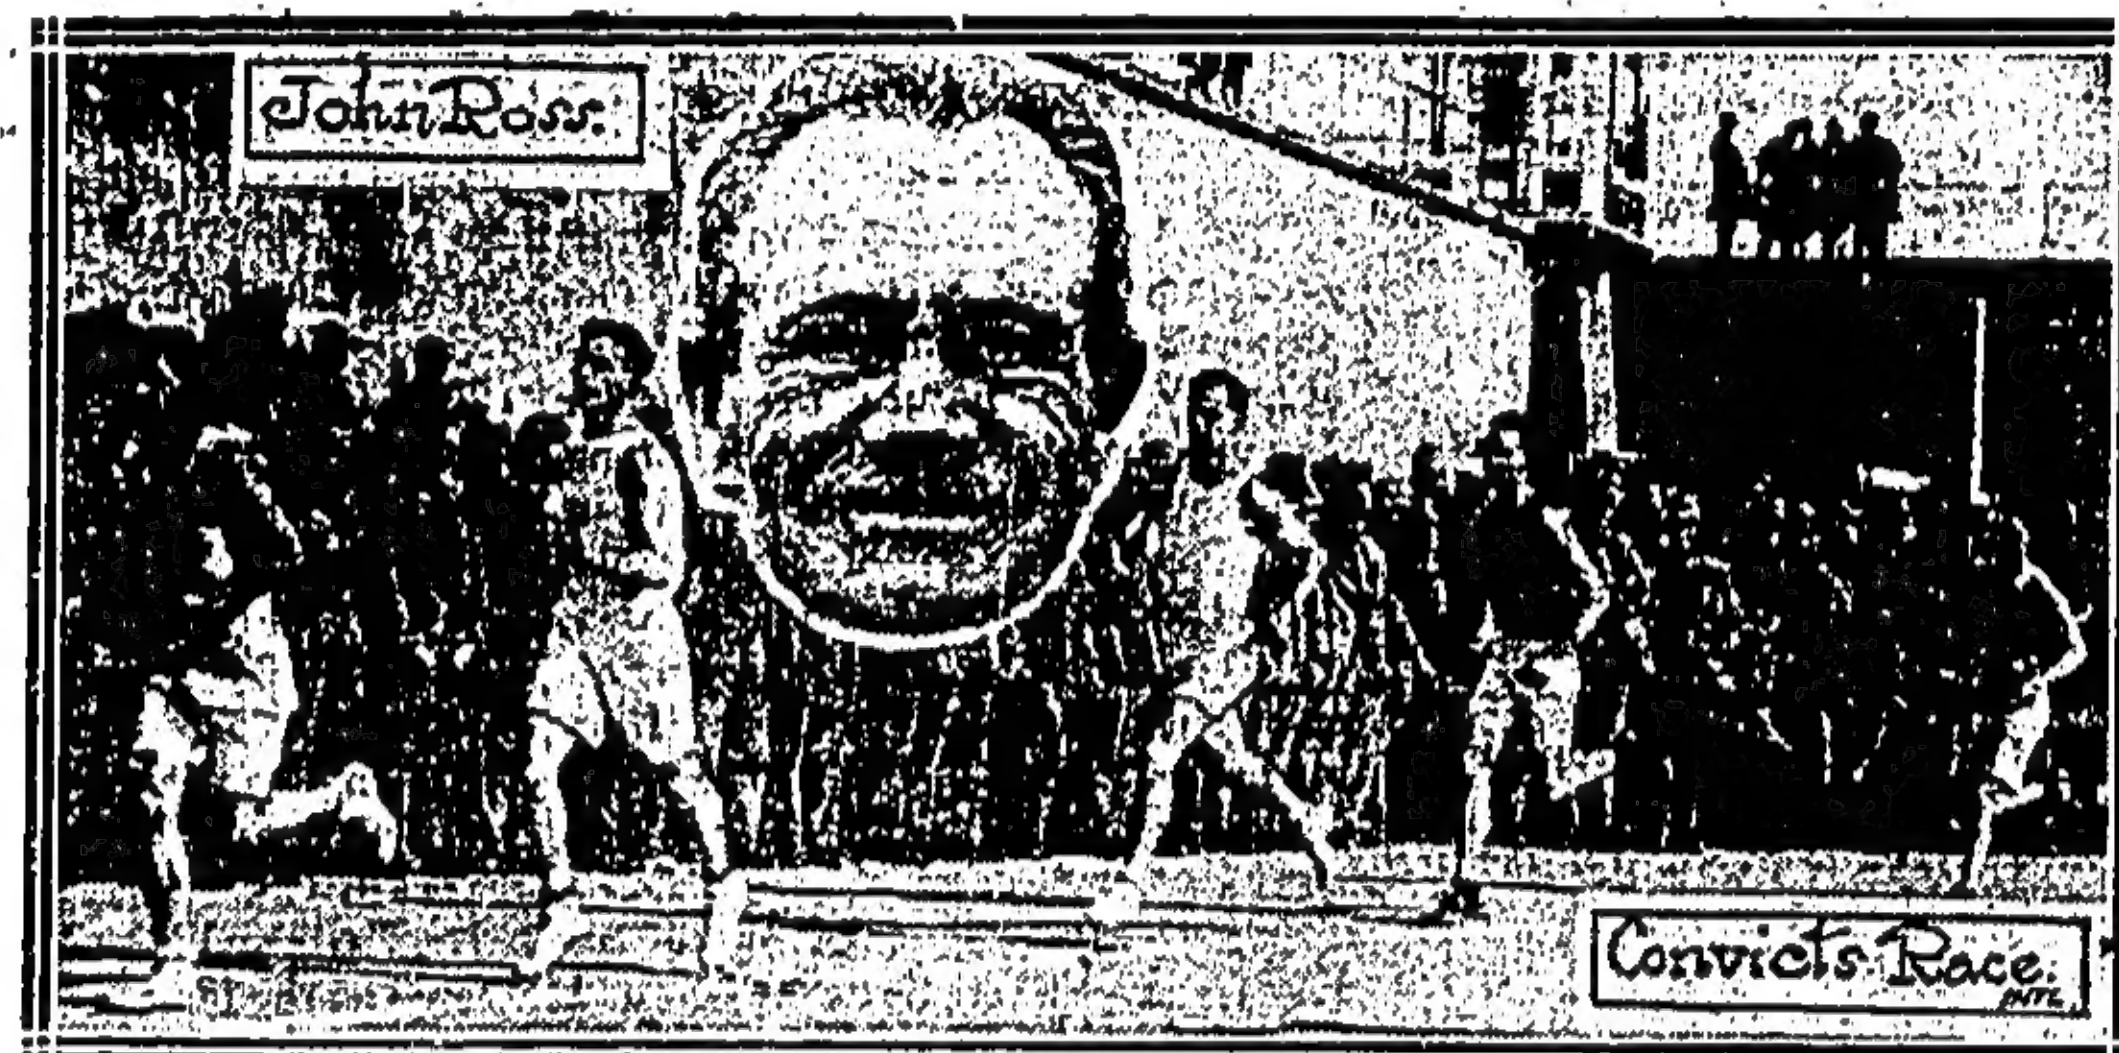

Mr. Theodorus C. White, with his wife and son, have returned to China on a business tour. Mrs. White was a royal Princess—Princess Dowager of China—and acted as First Lady in waiting to the late Dowager Empress of China. Mr. White is a prominent banker in Peking.

While the ship on which she was returning to America was hundreds of miles from New York Miss Vella Fava received a wireless proposal from her waiting sweet heart—and she accepted the same way.

Frau Adele Schreiber is leader of the Women Workers' Political Party of Germany, one of the most powerful organizations in the new Republic.

John Ross, aged 73, won a 50-yard race among the convicts of the San Quentin Prison in seven seconds flat. Shortly after he ran away from the prison guards while working in a road gang. Motor cycles were necessary to catch him.

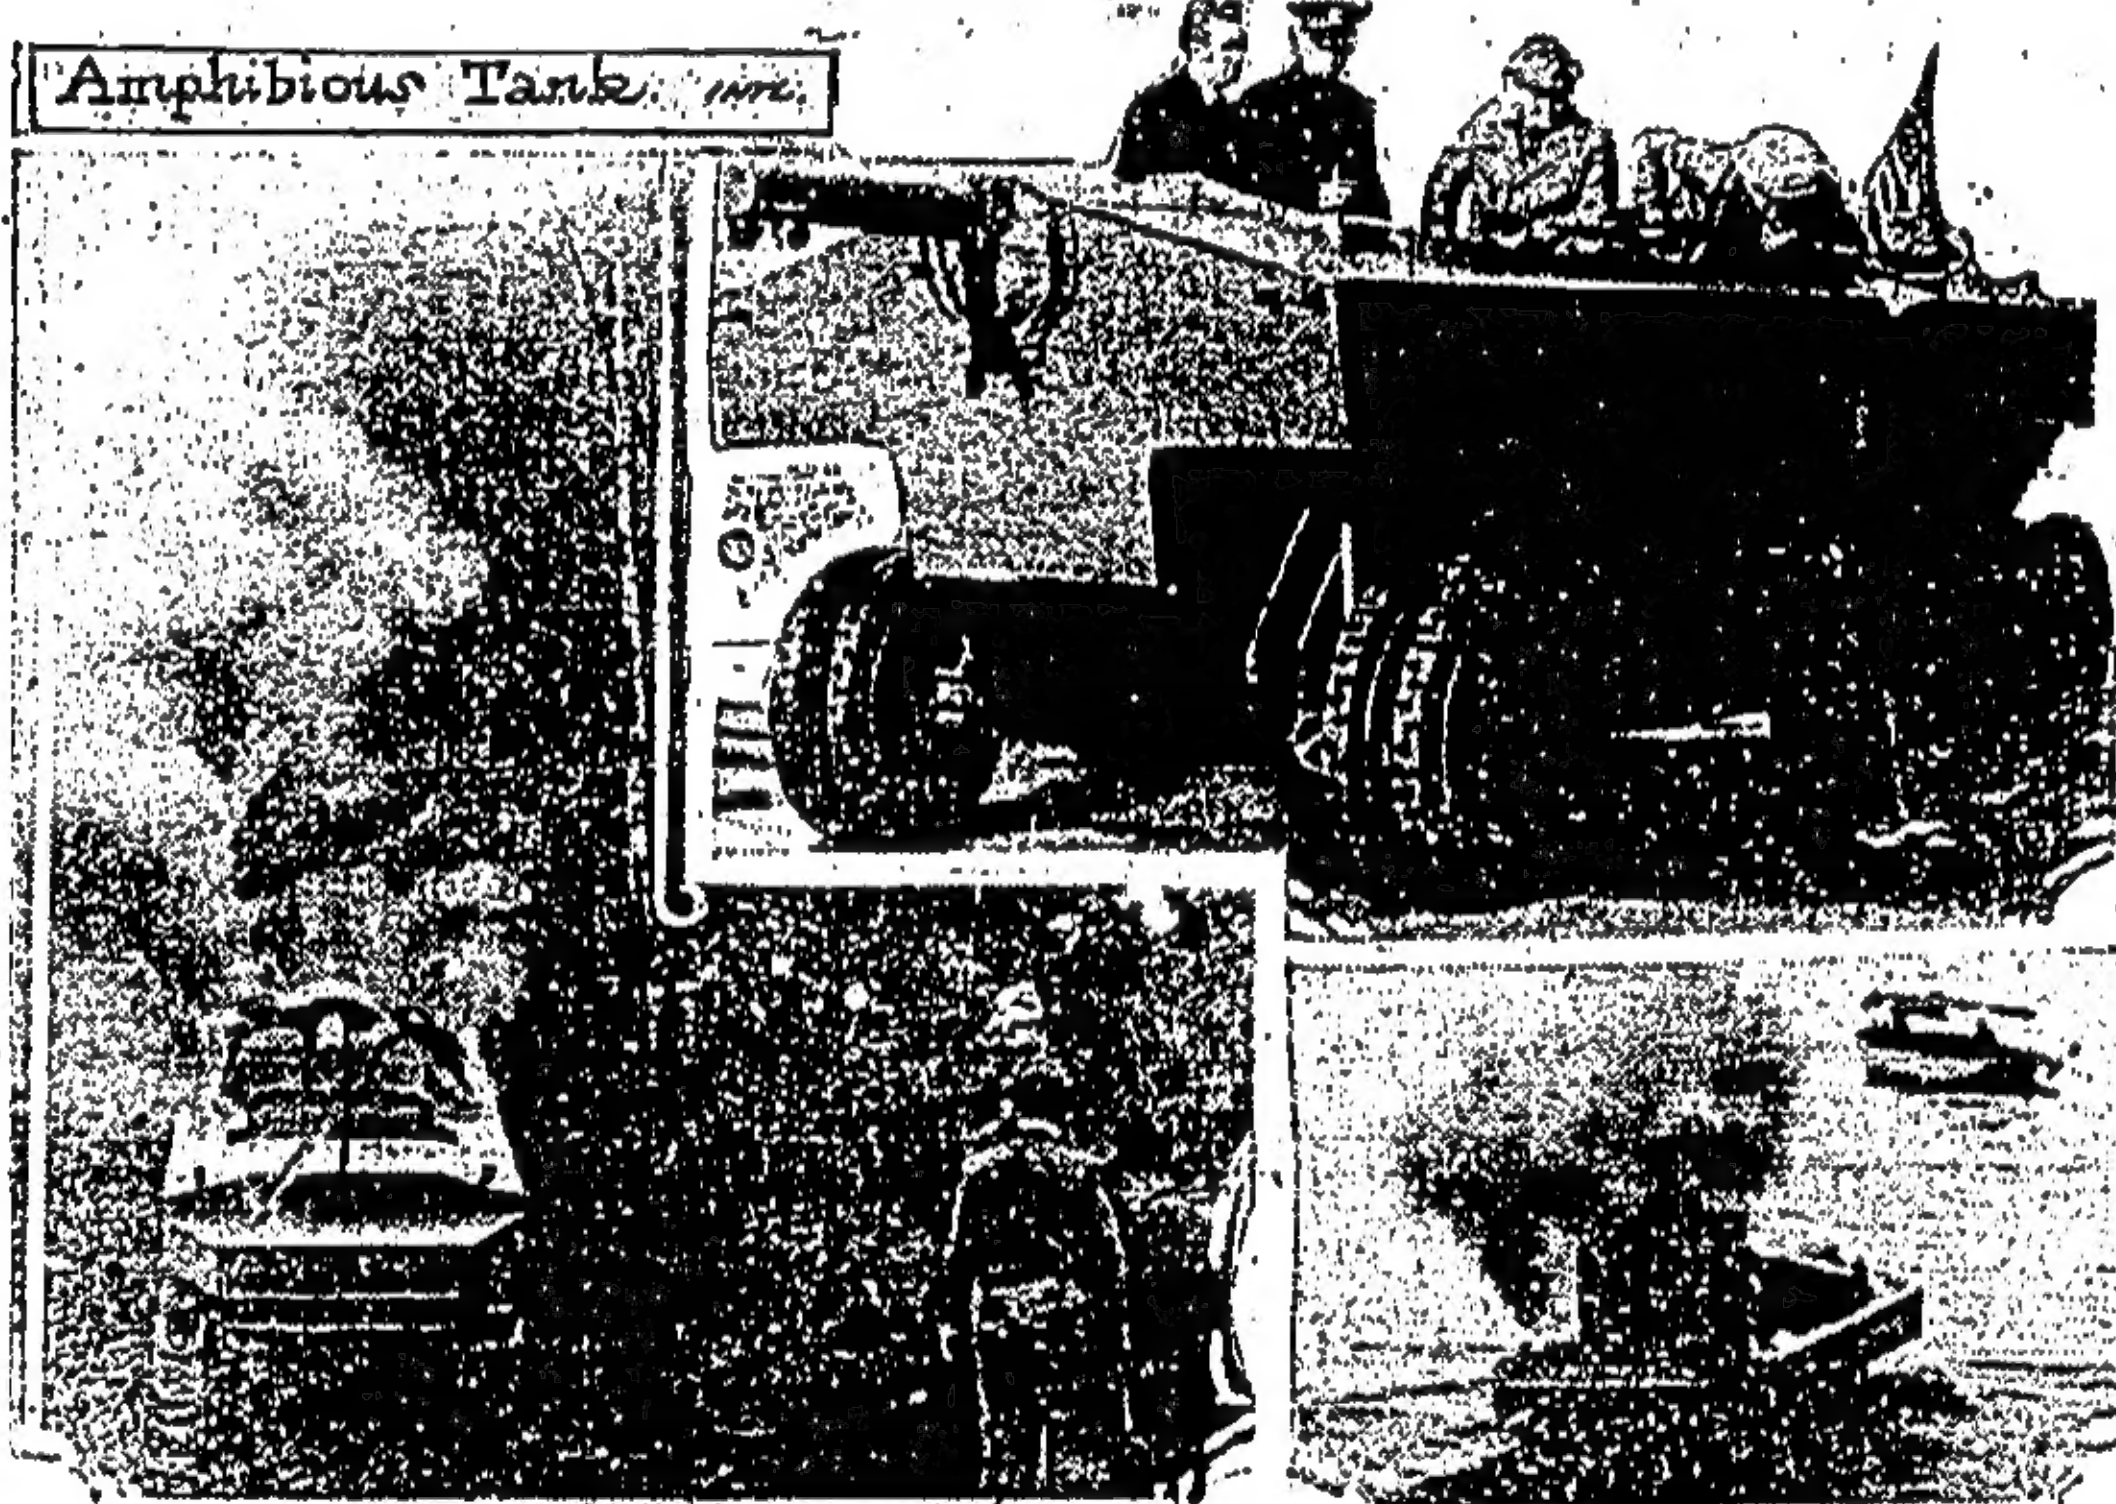

Christy Mathewson, once idol of baseball fans, knows that it is to suffer from tuberculosis, for he is recuperating after fighting for four years.

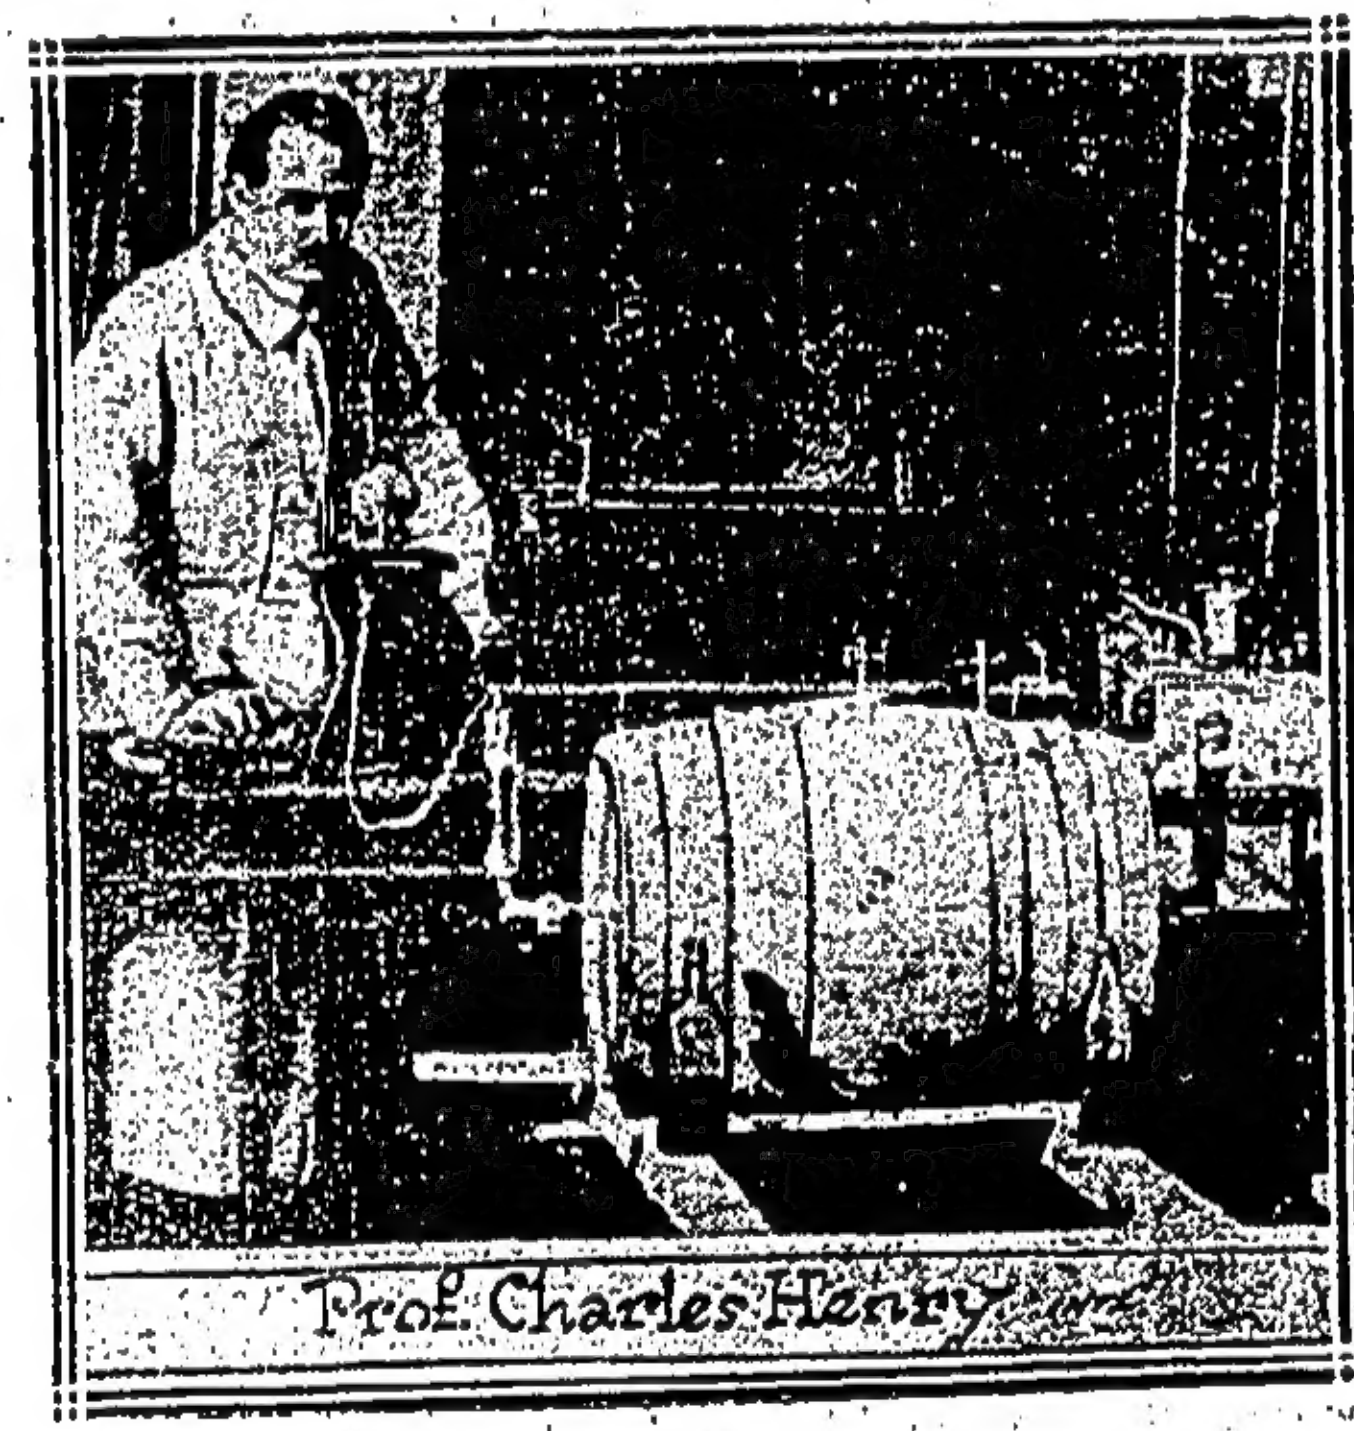

Mrs. Ingelborg Bjarnason has the honour of being the first woman elected to the upper house of Iceland's Althing, or Congress.

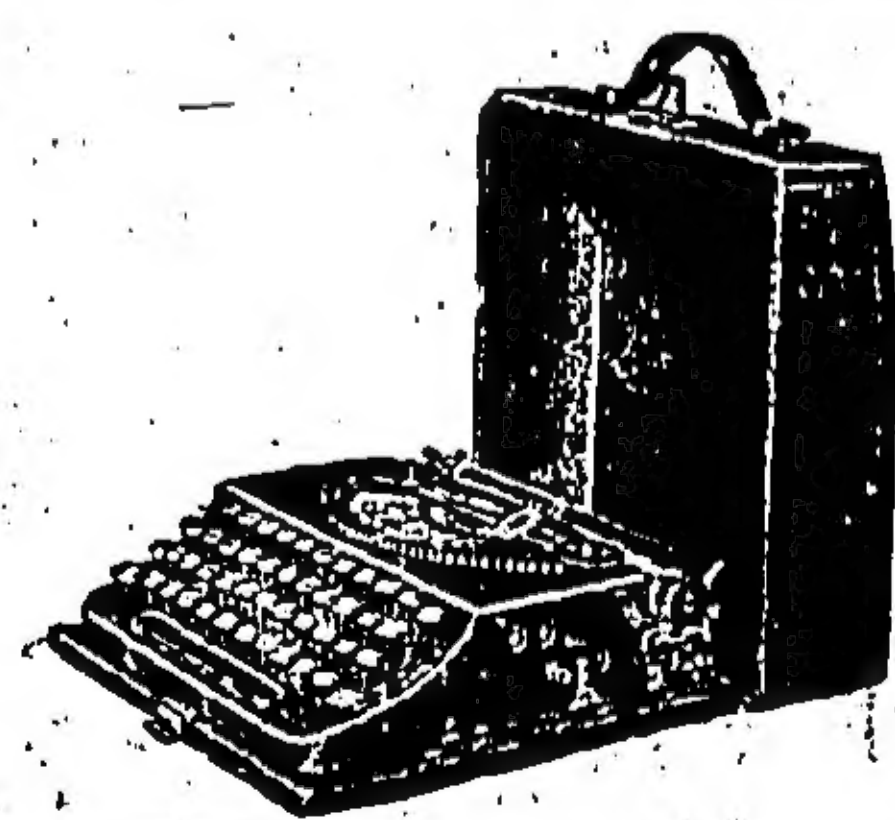

Fears are felt for the lives of King George and Queen Elizabeth of Greece, following the recent Greek revolt. George was the second son of the deposed Constantine and is shown, with his Queen, returning from the recent coronation of her parents, the King and Queen of Rumania.

High army officials witnessed the trial of this swimming "tank" invented by Walter Christie, famous motor car racer. The tank, which carries a six pounder and three machine guns, climbs hills at an angle of 45 degrees, and when it comes to a stream plunges in and goes across like a boat. It crossed the Hudson River, near New York a 20 miles an hour and climbed hills at 20 miles an hour. On paved roads it runs on wheels; on hills it uses caterpillar tractors. In the water it is moved by propellers.

Professor Charles Henry, of Sorbonne University, France, is shown with the apparatus he has perfected by which he ages liquors in a few minutes. He uses Rumi-kor's apparatus by attaching wires to the facets at both ends of the leg. Then he elects 120,000 volts through the leg. This removes all impurities and gives it flavour of 40-year-old liquor.
